See how they grow

Kitten

Newborn

I have just been born.
I am still wet and I cannot see or hear.

Soon my mother licks me dry.

This is me!

My mother feeds my brother,
sisters, and me milk.

A cuddly clump

I am four days old.
I crawl over to my brother and sisters.

I climb on top of them
and we all sleep together.

Now we are awake.
My mother is cleaning herself while we try to feed.

Lost and alone

Now I am two weeks old.

I can see and hear. Today I am going for a crawl on my own.

I sniff the floor as I crawl along.

Suddenly I miss my mother.
I mew loudly until she comes to get me.

Exploring

Now I am four weeks old. I am really ready to explore.

What is this?
I see a dog over there!

I hurry back to my mother
and brother and sisters.
Then I will be safe again.

I hope that dog goes away!

Playing

I am six weeks old and I love to romp and play.

This is my pom-pom,
but the yarn keeps getting tangled around my neck!

That's better.

Now I'm free again.

I'll go and play with my ball.

Play fights

I am eight weeks old and getting really big now.

Will someone play
with me today?

I'll pretend to be asleep.

Here comes my brother.
I pounce on him and we roll on the floor.

Then he pounces on me.

Taking care of myself

I am ten weeks old and almost grown up.

When I feel hungry,
I feed from my saucer.

I am cleaning myself.
I lick my paw and rub
it on my face.

I lick myself all over.
