The Empire

From the moment the Emperor took control of the Old Republic, renaming it the Galactic Empire, the galaxy has been threatened by tyranny and evil. The Emperor ruthlessly uses the dark side of the Force to control his subjects. Protected by a vast army of lethal machines and sinister generals, he will stop at nothing to expand the realms of Imperial power.

Loyal Guard
Fanatically loyal, the mysterious Imperial Royal Guards protect the Emperor. They are highly trained in deadly arts and use vibro-active force pikes to inflict lethal wounds.

Dark Knight
Prowling the corridors of the Imperial Navy, Darth Vader is a much-feared military commander. He was once a pupil of the Jedi Obi-Wan Kenobi, but now works for the Emperor. Vader's knowledge of the dark side of the Force makes him extremely dangerous.

White Fighter
Highly disciplined and loyal to the Emperor, the stormtroopers are shielded by white space armor. They are the most trusted and effective troops in the Imperial military.

Head Protection
The Death Star gunner's helmet is fitted with a transceiver and a shielded lens.

Lethal Weapon
Darth Vader's lightsaber has a blade of pure energy that can cut through nearly any object.

Close shot
The standard blaster is issued to every scout trooper. This weapon is ideal for short-range targets.

Evil Dictator
Drawing his powers from the dark side of the Force, the terrible Emperor rules the military forces of the Imperial Navy. His simple clothing and hood conceal his twisted features.

Double Bomber
The Empire's main bomber is the TIE assault bomber. It is exceptionally successful on ground-bombing missions.

Controlled Power

The lethal TIE Interceptor has dagger-shaped solar panels. It also has special ion drives that give the pilot extra control.

Accurate Shot

This rugged laser rifle has incredible consistency and accuracy.

Torturer

The pitiless interrogator droid surgically exploits every weakness it finds in the enemy.

Lone Trooper

Scout troopers are trained to endure long periods without support. They are only armored on the upper body and head.

Terrorizer

These fearsome wedge-shaped warships are called Star Destroyers. They carry devastating firepower throughout the galaxy to terrorize any opposition.

Tough Walker

The gigantic All Terrain Armored Transport (AT-AT) walkers are invulnerable to most blaster bolts and cannons.

Agile Fighter

Small and fast, the TIE fighter is built for exceptional maneuverability.

Fast Walker

The All Terrain Scout Transport (AT-ST) is known as the scout walker. Fast and agile, it can travel over rough terrain in search of hidden enemy groups.

Ultimate Weapon

Invulnerable to large-scale assault, the Death Star contains a hypermatter reactor that can generate enough power to destroy an entire planet.

Stormtrooper Blaster

Compact and rugged, the E-11 BlasTech Standard Imperial sidearm combines excellent range with lethal firepower.

Probe Droid

Intelligent and eerie, the probe droid is equipped with myriad sensors and investigative instincts.

Galactic Life

The galaxy is teeming with mysterious creatures and beings. Many of these are outlaws, who try to survive beyond the Empire's grasp. Jawas trade in scavenged junk and droid parts; Jabba the Hutt masterminds a criminal empire all his own; and even musicians sometimes gamble their way out of debt. And then there are the bounty hunters, who thrive by their murderous and violent deeds.

Explosive device
Carried at the back of the belt, the thermal detonator contains powerful explosives.

Vile Crime Lord

Astute and ruthless, Jabba the Hutt is at the center of a large criminal empire. He eats nine meals a day and enjoys using his power and wealth to control weaker species.

Notorious Hunter

Cool and calculating, the mysterious Boba Fett is the best bounty hunter in the galaxy. He has his own code of honor and only takes on missions that meet his harsh sense of justice.

Swindler's Tool

Used by the swindling Jawas, ionization blasters feature built-in ion regulators and a blast nozzle.

Pleasure Craft

Jabba the Hutt's sail barge, Khetanna, is used to transport the crimelord wherever he wishes to go.

Military Droid

The RA-7 Protocol Droid is a military model designed to work closely with the latest E-wing fighter.

Musical Minds

Naturally musical and intelligent, the band called the Modal Nodes is the most often heard in the Mos Eisley Cantina. Their lead player, Figrin D'an, is an experienced gambler who manages to keep the band out of trouble.

Sand Patrol

Rusted and scoured by countless sandstorms, the Jawa sandcrawler searches the wastelands of Tatooine for lost droids and salvagable junk.

Sand Creature

Prowling through the dunes and wastes of Tatooine, Tusken Raiders are masters of the desert. Savage and violent, they can survive where no one else can.

Stalking Ship
Boba Fett's deceptive starship, Slave I, is fitted with a stolen secret sensor-masking device, enabling it to disappear from most scanning systems.

Fearsome Carnivore

Kept in a pit by Jabba the Hutt, the fearsome rancor is five metres (16 feet) tall and has an armored skin.

Killer Instincts

Trained as an Imperial assassin, Dengar had brain surgery that turned him into a merciless killer. The IG-88 assassin droid is no less vile: It escaped from the laboratories and now stalks the galaxy, obsessed with killing.

Criminal Minds

Bossk is a reptilian Trandoshan and a tough bounty hunter. 4-LOM was once a sophisticated protocol droid, but has degraded to become a criminal.

Tough Guard
Brutish, stubborn, and often violent, the Gamorrean guards protect Jabba's palace. They prefer to use hand-to-hand combat weapons instead of blasters.

Scavengers

Dressed in dark robes, the notoriously tricky Jawas patrol the dunes looking for junk to repair and trade.

Hungry Player

The crazy keyboard player, Max Rebo, is a blue Ortolan. He is so obsessed with food that he asked Jabba to pay him in free meals.

Fearsome Criminal

As Jabba's chief lieutenant, the conniving Bib Fortuna uses underhanded methods to gain control. Despite his obsequious manner, he is always plotting a way to kill his boss.

The Rebellion

Fighting to rid the galaxy of Imperial tyranny, the Rebel Alliance relies on the light side of the Force. The Rebels are a diverse group made up of royalty, exiled aliens, droids, ex-smugglers, and Jedi Knights. Together they try to overcome the evil powers of darkness.

Young Hero
Determined and innovative, the heroic Luke Skywalker transformed himself from farmboy to wing commander for the Alliance. His natural ability to respond to the Force means he is a born leader, with the qualities to become a noble Jedi Knight.

Communication
Comlinks enable individual soldiers to communicate with other Rebels while on patrol or performing other military duties.

Steady Fire
Designed by Admiral Ackbar, the B-wing fighter has an unusual gyrostabilization system that keeps the cockpit steady while the pilot fires at the enemy.

Stern Beauty
Strong-willed, disciplined, and beautiful, Princess Leia is the youngest-ever Galactic Senator and has her own consular ship, Tantive IV. She uses her powerful position to help the Rebel Alliance.

Action Man
Confident, rugged, and reckless, Han Solo has worked his way up from poor beginnings to become captain of the Falcon. His gunfighting skills make him a match for any adversary.

Hard Target
The Incom T-47 airspeeder, nicknamed snowspeeder, is used for low atmospheric duty. It can reach more than 1,000 km (620 miles) per hour, and although it has no shield, its compact size makes it hard to hit.

Hoth Essentials
On the ice planet Hoth, Rebels must carry all their equipment in a special backpack.

Energy Blaster
The DH-17 Rebel blaster uses high energy blaster gases to shoot bolts of light energy.

Ocean Friend

Commander of the Rebel fleet, the cautious Admiral Ackbar comes from the ocean world of Mon Calamari. His ships, the giant Mon Cal star cruisers, are the largest in the Rebel fleet.

Escape Route

This simple escape pod can propel C-3PO and R2-D2 away from danger with its basic rocket engine.

Speed Machine

Ideal for hit-and-run missions, the lightweight A-wing fighter was designed to outrun any Imperial ship.

Mysterious Hermit

Once a great warrior of the Old Republic, the mysterious Ben Kenobi is a Jedi Knight who lives in the Jundland Wastes. His vast powers and knowledge of the Force make him a threat to the Empire.

Etiquette Master

As a protocol droid fluent in more than six million forms of communication, C-3PO is programmed to ensure that everything runs smoothly. Although he is often overwhelmed by the turbulent times, he always remains faithful to his masters.

Head Gear

The insulated Rebel helmet is marked with the Alliance symbol.

Mighty Wookiee

Rescued from slavery by Han Solo, the mighty Wookiee Chewbacca uses his mechanical skills to keep Solo's spaceship flying. He is fiercely loyal and a perfect fighting partner for Han Solo.

Loyal Servant

The quirky R2-D2 was designed as a sophisticated computer repair and information retrieval droid. He is always prepared to risk destruction to help his masters.

Rebel Craft

To survive the terrifying power of the Empire, the Rebel Alliance needs a vast range of fighter ships, special equipment, and perhaps most importantly, expert advice.

Rogue Leader
The stylish Lando Calrissian, once a roguish smuggler captain, is the flamboyant leader of Cloud City. He has a head for business and skillful judgment in battle.

Furry Friends
Small and furry, the resourceful Ewoks live in the forests of the emerald moon, Endor.

Premier Fighter
One of the most impressive fighters in the Rebel force, the T-65 X-wing is extremely durable. Designed to carry heavy weapons, it is also remarkably maneuverable.

Computer Pack
The Rebel sensor pack is fitted with a range cycle computer and a stentronic wave monitor.

High Maintenance
Despite its battered and aging appearance, Han Solo's Millennium Falcon is one of the fastest ships in the galaxy.

Durable Fighter
Before the introduction of the X-wing starfighter, the Y-wing was the main fighter for the Alliance. Built to last, it is still widely used as a combination fighter and light bomber.

Wise Teacher
At almost 900 years old, Jedi Master Yoda is very powerful with the Force. It is his duty to try and instill in Luke a faith, peace, and harmony that will protect him from the evil powers of the dark side.

Royal Ship
Princess Leia's consular ship Tantive IV has a traditional ship design and can be easily disguised among galactic traffic.
